The number of providers that constitutes 'sufficiently large' will vary depending on the number of providers operating in the market for a product or service. The following are among the criteria that we will consider when conducting a fair analysis of the market:

- the needs of the customer
- the size of the customer order
- the number of providers in the market that deal with brokers

- the number of relevant products available from each provider
- the availability of information about the products

- the quality of the product and service provided by the provider
- cost, and other relevant considerations.

We do not, in any circumstances, assess, guarantee, or otherwise warrant the solvency of any product provider with whom we place such policies, investment products and pensions. If you have any concerns regarding any product provider chosen to meet your life and pensions requirements you must advise us as soon as possible and we will discuss them with you.

4. Outsourcing

The firm may outsource activities to regulated and unregulated providers. We may also outsource activities on an intragroup arrangement in which one company within a group of companies provides services for another company within the same group that could also be or usually have been provided in-house) This has several benefits, namely:

- To manage and control operating costs
- To effectively manage variability in business volumes
- To access skills, expertise and capability which would be uneconomic to develop internally
- To centralise similar capabilities allowing for better training, process improvement and coverage and reduce level of dependency on individuals –
- To more effectively deliver business change including regulatory change.

These arrangements seek to reduce the levels of operational risk within an organisation, enhance the customer experience and outcome. We believe there should be proportionality on the oversight of out-sourced arrangements made within an intra-group structure that has common ownership, common governance standards.

Referral business:

If you enquire of us for a quotation for general insurance products, we may refer you to a company in our group for a quotation specialising in retail personal and commercial insurance broking. 36. Adverse Sustainability Impacts Statement

36.1. In accordance with the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (‘SFDR’), we inform you that when providing advice on insurance-based investment products (‘IBIPs’)/Investments, we do not assess, in addition to relevant financial risks, relevant sustainability risks as far as this information is available in relation the products proposed/advised on. This means that we do not assess environmental, social or governance events/conditions that, if they occur, could have a material negative impact on the value of the investment.

36.2. When providing advice on IBIPs or investment advice we do not consider the impacts of our advice that result in negative effects on sustainability factors (namely environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption, and anti-bribery matters), because currently there is limited relevant products on the market which meet these criteria and the area of sustainability is relatively new. However, as the issue progresses, we will review our position in this regard.

36.3. We have not assessed the likely impacts of sustainability risks on the returns of Investment/Pensions since we have not been able to identify any sustainability risks that are relevant. Therefore, it is important for you to read your Investment/Pensions provider's documentation as it will also set out whether and how they consider such factors when producing the IBIP/Pension you have selected.

36.4. We will review our position on an annual basis and update our Terms of Business accordingly.

2. New Business & Renewal

2.1. You may cancel a contract of insurance, by giving notice in writing to the insurer, within 14 working days after the date you were informed that the contract is concluded. This does not affect the notice periods already provided under European Union (Insurance and Reinsurance) Regulations 2015 (S.I. No. 485 of 2015) or the European Communities (Distance Marketing of Consumer Financial Services) Regulations 2004 (S.I. No. 853 of 2004) which is 30 days in respect of life policies, irrespective of whether the sale took place on a non-face to face basis.

2.2. The giving of notice of cancellation by you will have the effect of releasing you from any further obligation arising from the contract of insurance. The insurer cannot impose any costs on you other than the cost of the premium for the period of cover.

2.3. This right to cancel does not apply where, in respect of life assurance the contract is for a duration of six months or less.

3. Proposal Form

3.1. To incept your contract of insurance some Insurers will require you to complete and sign a Proposal Form, Questionnaire, or similar document.

3.2. You are under a duty to answer all questions posed honestly and with reasonable care as these answers will be set out in the Proposal Form or Statement of Fact and will form the basis of any contract of insurance arranged on your behalf with an Insurer.

3.1. We will advise you in this process but are not able to complete the document on your behalf save where we pre-populate (either partially or fully) the document based on information provided by you.

3.2. In either case, you must review the information in these documents carefully before entering a contract of insurance and advise us immediately if any of the information requires amendment.

4. Payment of Premium

4.1. You are under a duty to pay your premium within a reasonable time, or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the contract of insurance.

5. Alteration of Risk

Any clause in a contract of insurance that refers to a “material change” will be interpreted as being a change that takes the risk outside the reasonable contemplation of the contracting parties when the contract was concluded. An insurer may refuse a claim made by you under a contract of insurance where there is a change in the risk insured, including as described in an “alteration of risk” clause, and the circumstances have so changed that it has effectively changed the risk to one which the insurer has not agreed to cover.

6. Policies

6.1. Any insurance arranged by Glennon is subject to all the terms, conditions, and exclusions of the policy of the Insurer selected.

6.2. It is essential that you read and comply with the terms, conditions, and exclusions in your Insurer's policy, which you have been given, or which is available on request from us; to satisfy yourself that the cover offered by the policy meets with your requirements.

6.3. Failure to comply with any terms, conditions, and exclusions can invalidate the insurance at the option of your Insurer.

6.4. If for some reason you breach or cannot comply with a term, condition, or exclusion in your policy you should discuss the matter with us immediately.

7. Claims Handling

7.1. To ensure your full protection under your contract of insurance or similar documentation you should familiarise yourself with the coverage, conditions or other procedures immediately relating to claims and to the notification of those claims. Claims may be made against certain policies long after they have expired. It is important therefore, that you keep your policy documents in a secure place.

7.2. It is especially important that claims or circumstances that might give rise to a claim are notified to your Insurer in accordance with the Claims Conditions in your contract of insurance. You are responsible for notifying your Insurer of the occurrence of an insured event within a reasonable time or in accordance with the terms of your contract of insurance and therefore all claims, or any circumstance that may give rise to a claim, should be reported immediately to us so we can assist you in this process. If you are in any doubt as to whether a matter should be reported, please contact us and we will be happy to discuss it with you.

7.3. You must notify the insurer of a claim within a reasonable time, or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the contract of insurance.

7.4. If you become aware after a claim is made, of information that would either support or prejudice the claim, you are under a duty to disclose it. (The insurer is under the same duty).

7.5. Your Insurer shall pay any sums due to you in respect of a claim within a reasonable time, however where it is not possible to quantify the total value of the claim within a reasonable time but where part of the total value has been quantified, your insurer shall pay that part to you within a reasonable time.

7.6. We will provide a claims broking service to you if you remain our client. However, if you cease to be our client but request us to continue to service any claims(s) on your behalf, we reserve the right to charge a specified fee to you for such services. A court of competent jurisdiction can reduce the pay-out to you if you are in breach of your duties under the Act, in proportion to the breach involved.
